Trustees' Report

There is nothing of moment to report concerning the library this year, but it may be well to mention a few outstanding facts.

Two lots of books have been bought for the library in 1923, and more should be and probably will be added soon.

Because we needed more room in the stock room, some racks have been built in the attic and many of the less used and obsolete volumes have been removed from the stock room and put in them, thus making more room for new books and still having them in a place when they are accessible if needed.

Although the library has enjoyed its usual degree of prosperity during the year, it has been particularly unfortunate in losing two of its trustees—Mrs. Lena A. Kezer and Harold S. Frost, both of whom have removed from town. This will make it necessary to elect two instead of one trustee at the coming Town Meeting.

Several gifts of books, magazines and other things have been made to the library and we desire to thank those who have given them.

Any suggestions in regard to the purchase of new books or the conduct of the general affairs of the library by those who are intrusted will be gratefully received and considered.

As there is nothing in view for the coming year that will regain any additional money, perhaps a few minor repairs, the usual appropriation of $400 is recommended.

SHERMAN HOBBS,
Library Trustee.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

To the School Board of Pelham.

Gentlemen:

I have the pleasure of presenting herewith my fifth annual report as superintendent of your schools.

Teachers

Your schools opened this year with three of your former teachers in service and with four new ones; two at the High and Junior High School, and new teachers at No. 1, and No. 4. Miss Griffin resigned at the beginning of the Christmas vacation and her place has been filled. I feel that the board has been very fortunate in the selection of its teachers this year, and that Pelham has been particularly favored in securing the services of a young man of the scholarship and personality of Mr. Phinney. I believe that the teaching force of Pelham is the strongest at the present moment that it has been at any time in the past five years.

Enrollment

The membership in your schools has dropped appreciably in the past year. Your average membership for the school year 1922-23 was 185, your present membership is 160. However, a survey recently made seems to indicate that the low-water mark has been reached. Pelham is too close to Nashua, Lowell and Lawrence to suffer much more in depletion of its population regardless of transportation facilities.

High School

Your one year high school is small again this year, having an enrollment of 9 and a present membership of 7 pupils. As long as secondary work for but one year is offered by the school, we cannot expect a membership of much more than a dozen or 15. But even with the small number we now have, I believe the school decidedly worth while. Seven pupils each year, should they continue through the other three years of secondary work, would give Pelham a high school attendance of about 50 pupils, a much larger number than this town has had in recent years at least.

I am afraid that some of the parents do not seriously enough consider our effort to maintain a high school. Twice in the three years of its existance the approval of the school has been held up for a time because of a low attendance percent. Approval of a small high school is absolutely essential. Without it the pupils on graduating have no rating when they apply for advanced standing in other high schools in the State. They cannot be certified for work beyond that of the first year when coming from unapproved schools. In such a contingency the time of the pupils is wasted as far as securing any advancement in another school is concerned. This fall the Pelham school was approved until January 31, 1924, with future approval conditional on the school showing an improvement in its attendance record. After repeated exhortations and warnings in this matter, I had to resort to drastic measures to secure the required improvement. One pupil, because of his poor attendance record, was dropped back into grade VIII. This was necessarily done to protect the other seven. The parents should cooperate with us in trying to make this school a success.

The Marking System

A word of explanation at this time of our marking system may not be amiss. Lack of understanding the significance of the marks on the pupils' cards very frequently causes much uneasiness for the parents and leads to unpleasant situations for the teacher, and sometimes for other school officials.

We have adopted in our marking system a five point scale, with four grades above the passing mark, and one to indicate any degree of attainment, however poor, which is below such a standard. The vital point is the standard of attainment fixed for a passing mark. This should represent an absolute quantity and should not be subject to the caprice of any school official, whether teacher, superintendent, or board member. It should represent such attainment for each grade as is known to be secured, on promotion, by the pupils in the average school. To fix such a standard with any degree of certainty has been, up to very recent years, an impossibility. Any teacher or administrative officer could guess, but there has been no data for forming a reliable judgement. From the many and much used scales and standardized tests of today, the teacher or the superintendent can form a very definite idea of where the passing mark should be in the scale of attainment in any school subject.

When the crucial point has been fixed, the grading of those above the passing mark is a comparatively easy matter. In the five point scale, we give a mark of A, for the exceptional attainment, such as is found from the curve of normal distribution is secured by 7 per cent or 8 per cent of the pupils in schools in the aggregate. B, is given for the rest of the upper third, C, for the middle third, D, for that portion of the lowest third which is above the passing standard, and F, for all below passing.

The mark C, then, represents the attainment of the largest class, the great class of average ability, while B, is a mark which any parent should be proud to see on the child's card, and A, is for the exceptional few. Understanding this, it is inconsistent for a parent, claiming but average ability or behavior for his child, to expect marks of A and B. These are marks for pupils of more than average abilities or behavior. We have such pupils and we have provided this way in our marking system of expressing it.

This scheme for marking the attainment of pupils is the one used, or approximated, in nearly all school systems of today. It can be reduced to a per cent basis wherever there is an advantage in so doing.

Transportation

Fear of immediate discontinuance of the service of the Massachusetts North Eastern road has been temporarily allayed, but a prudent policy would seem to demand that we be prepared for such an event. Should the service be discontinued, transportation for pupils in grades VII and VIII could probably be secured, but at a much greater expense than is now incurred. Such discontinuance would, however, work a severe hardship for some families now sending, or wishing in the near future to send, children to the Nashua High School. Without the electric road, commuting would be out of the question, while the expense of boarding children away from home would be too great for some of our families, besides the undesirability of so doing. In such a contingency it would seem that the only solution of the problem, if Pelham children are to have the benefits of a secondary education, would be a four year high school in the town.

I believe that Pelham people should be prepared for such an emergency. A high school would be costly for the town, but the absence of the opportunity for a secondary education for Pelham children would be even more costly for the community. It would mean a condition which desirable citizens would not tolerate.

I am attaching to this report an extract from the last statistical report and also a report from your school nurse.

Thanking the board for the many considerations shown me which have made my work for the past year a pleasure, this report is,

Respectfully submitted,

LOUIS DEWITT RECORD,

Supt. of Schools,

Union No. 27.

February 1, 1924.

The problem of securing corrective treatment for the pupils of Pelham is more difficult than in some towns due chiefly to the travelling facilities.

The pupils have responded well to health suggestions, and I find each year more interest is shown.

The black boards in some of the rural schools are very poor and I believe the pupils are greatly handicapped because of this. Aside from an epidemic of whooping cough at the Gumpus School, there have been very few contagious diseases.

Respectfully submitted,

MAUD H. PRISKE,
School Nurse.
